Winston, Jan. 25.—The 300 strikers at Brown & Williamson's tobacco factory have gone back to work. The firm withdrew its demand for a reduction in wages of 10 cents on the 100 pounds of tobacco rolled for the past two weeks and gave the hands full pay.

W. J. Ellis, editor of the Union Republican, yesterday took the oath of assistant postmaster here. There will be no change in the assistant at the Salem office, the present incumbent, J. L. Brietz holding over.

NOW THEY SAY EWART.

And That Ewart Will Mean Democratic Victory.

The Charlotte Observer's Washington correspondent says:

Replying to newspaper reports to the effect that he opposed the appointment of Judge Douglas on account of the alleged complications in connection with his administration as United States marshal, Senator Pritchard said: "The statement is absolutely false. The only objection I have suggested to his appointment is that his retirement from the State Supreme Court bench would imperil a change in the present complexion of the court. On that account I have declined to recommend his appointment and have so advised him."

"All this means the appointment of Judge Ewart, and that means," said a prominent Russellite Republican to-night, "the end of the fusion movement in this State, and consequently the election of a democratic legislature this year."

"Senator Pritchard," said one of Senator Butler's confidential republican allies, "has made an indefensible blunder, an egregious, fatal mistake in this matter, and it is Senator Butler's purpose to say to him that there can be no fusion in the State that will prevent the election of a democratic legislature this year under his leadership."

Judge Douglas will remain here until the appointment is made, and intimates his purpose to defeat Ewart's confirmation.

HERE'S A BONANZA.

A. C. Gunter's California Land is a Sort of Klondyke Itself.

A. C. Gunter, formerly a real estate dealer in Asheville, is in a position to enter into the true spirit of California's gold jubilee, which began today.

Mr. Gunter has only recently struck a veritable Klondyke in that state. Some time ago he exchanged some property for lands in California. Both parties to the transaction were of the opinion that their respective properties were valueless.

Mr. Gunter placed the deed to his California property in a pigeon hole and thought no more about it. Some time since he received a number of letters making inquiries regarding the property and finally a letter came containing an offer for $50,000 for the land. The discovery was made that a gold vein ran through the supposedly worthless land.

Mr. Gunter left yesterday for California where will investigate his gold interests.—Asheville Citizen.

BEAR NO. 107.

"Big Tom" Wilson Has That Number to His Credit.

S. F. Chapman, who is at home from a trip to Yancey county, saw "Big Tom" Wilson while away, and brings the information that the famous hunter and guide has killed his 107th bear. "Big Tom's" son Dolph is something of a hunter himself, and says he is going to break the record made by his father. He has to date 67 bears to his credit. "Big Tom" says Dolph will have to stir his stumps mightily if he gets ahead of his father, and adds that it is by reason of the training received from him that Dolph is so successful.—Asheville Citizen.

ANDREWS UP FOR CONTEMPT.

Case Now Under Consideration by the Commission.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Raleigh, Jan. 25.—The Railway Commission met at 10 o'clock this morning to consider the case calling upon Col. A. B. Andrews, Vice-President of the Southern; Mr. H. W. Miller, his private secretary; Mr. J. B. Newsum, division freight agent, and Mr. R. L. Potts, local agent of the Southern, to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt for refusal to answer questions propounded to them.

The commission heard argument from Col. Henderson, of Knoxville, Tenn., and F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, for the respondents, and Cook and Douglass in behalf of the state.

The commission now has the case under consideration, no decision having been reached.

REINDEER STRANGLER AT SEA.

Hanged by Their Halters as the Glanton Rolled and Pitched.

Most of the fifteen reindeer that died on the steamship Glanton on her rough voyage from Hamburg, which she finished here on Saturday, were hanged by their halters. They were tied to stanchions between decks. Some had their necks broken and some were strangled. They were knocked from their feet by the violent rolling and pitching of the ship. After nine had died in this way the others were unhitched from the stanchions and put in a pen. Six died in the pen. The reindeer were brought here by James Niel. He collected forty of them in Finland. Eight died on the long journey to Hamburg. He has seventeen left, which he will take overland to Seattle and transport thence by water to the Klondike.—N. Y. Sun.

How They Show It.

When the charges of bribery were first sprung in the Ohio Legislature, Hanna's friends said: "It is done to defeat Hanna. We will elect him and then we will show that the charges were trumped up." Hanna was elected, and his friends decline to answer questions and run away from investigation.—News and Observer.

A VOLUNTEER VOLUNTEER.

And a Bag of Chickens Went With Him.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

STORM BECOMES A BLIZZARD.

Wires are Down and the Roads are Impassable.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—The storm has reached the dimensions of a blizzard and continues to sweep over west Nebraska and the adjoining states. The roads have become impassable and the wires are down. The storm reached Illinois today and is moving rapidly eastward.

BULOW EXONERATES DREYFUS.

Never any Relations Between Dreyfus and German Agents.

Berlin, Jan. 24.—The minister of Foreign Affairs, Baron von Bulow, made a solemn statement today before the budget committee of the Reichstag, in regard to the Dreyfus affair. He declared most emphatically that there had never been relations of any kind between representatives or agents and Dreyfus.

Continuing, the minister said the waste basket incident at the German embassy in Paris, and the finding therein of compromising documents affecting Dreyfus, was sheer invention. He added that the Dreyfus affair had not affected in the slightest the calm relations between the German and French governments. The speaker knew nothing of the visit to Dreyfus by German officials during his alleged stay in the Reichsland, and still less of the alleged special facilities given Dreyfus visit.

LUETGERT CROSS EXAMINED.

States Attorney Deenan Fails in an Effort to Trip Him.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—State's Attorney Charles S. Deenan began the cross examination of Adolph Luetgert at 3 p. m. today. The most material advantage gained by the State was the wide difference in the descriptions of the appearance of the vat on Sunday morning given by Luetgert and Mr. Charles. The latter said the vat contained tallow, unassimilated grease, lye and some soap. Luetgert maintained it was all "soapy substance" and the difference between the top and bottom was that the former was darker colored and slightly more fluid. Fully a dozen questions were put and repeated with the design of forcing the witness to tell what the soapy substance looked like. He realized the importance of the point and obstinately repeated his answer that it was just "soapy substance."

Explained.

"Do you mean to call that a victory?" asked the war correspondent. "Certainly," replied the Spanish official.

"But your men went flying in terror before the insurgents. They considered themselves lucky to get back at all. You don't call that a victory, do you?"

"Certainly. They got back, didn't they?"

"Yes."

"Well, I want you to understand that we claim jurisdiction over this island. We're making the rules, and every time any of us get back in safety it scores one victory."—Washington Star.

Albany, Jan. 24.—An appeal affecting the constitutionality of the Lexow anti-monitor law to examine the presidents of coal trusts and railroads was set down for argument before the Court of Appeals today but was postponed until the next term of court on March first.

WERE FIFTY LIVES LOST?

The Destruction of Property Will Amount To More Than a Half Million Dollars.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 25.—Twenty lives were lost in a fire early this morning in the great eastern block in the great Eastern block in this city. The first stories of the building were used as stores and the upper stories for lodging. The building has been known as the "fire trap" ever since it was built. The stairs were so arranged as to cut off escape. Many of those in the burning building leaped from the windows sustaining injuries and were carried to the hospitals dead or nearly so. Some were penned in and smothered or burned to death. The loss of property will amount to more than a half million dollars. Some say that the loss of life will be fifty as it is not known as yet how many lodgers were rescued. The heat was so intense that the work of rescuing the imprisoned people was next to impossible. There were about 250 lodgers in the building when the fire originated. The building was erected in 1890 and cost over a quarter of a million dollars.

The only party that seems to be in a good humor over the partition of China is China.

One thing that should console candidates for the judgeship is that there is nobody left to be trotted in as a dark horse.

The ordering of the large battleship Maine to Cuba is a mark of friendliness that will be appreciated to its full worth at Madrid.

The slowness with which Governor Russell moves in the Hancock matter suggests that His Excellency must be suffering from catarrh.

Mr. Dole need not hurry his journey across the country. He has from now until the first of February in which to be late for dinner.

Probably General Blanco in journeying into the provinces is merely seeking the proper local coloring for his victorious dispatches.

Mr. Hanna will now proceed to add a postscript to that reputation which he assured us sometime since proved that he was not a boddler.

For the glory of the fatherland let nobody distract the Kaiser's attention at this critical moment by unfriendly remarks about his nether habiliments.

If President Faure cannot manage matters with the French army he might induce Thomas B. Reed to call somebody else to the chair for a brief spell.

Halifax, Jan. 23. General Booth concluded his first week with a big meeting in this city today.

The ruling passion is still strong in Halifax.

Spain must have listened with dread for the final detonations of Senator Morgan's Hawaiian speech. It is on the program for the Senator to turn his megaphone on Cuba next.

The brethren who are so solicitous about Judge Dick being already forgotten, will please note that a large number of gentlemen are anxious to be known as "Judge Dick's successor."

With what patience it may, the country press will wait to learn whether the marriage of the Rev. T. Dewitt Talmage will have any effect upon the output of his "Sunday's Sermon."

Jerry Simpson sleeps well. He declares that he does not lie awake o' nights over the Cuban situation and his rooted reputation saves him from the imputation of loosing sleep over the strike of knitters in New England.

The Dreyfus rioting and the anti-semitic demonstrations in France show pretty clearly that when it comes to broad-gauged common sense and uncramped personal freedom America is about the only country that can be relied upon. The French way of doing things is simply incomprehensible to the average American. Why, the Chamber of Deputies should have fallen to and boxed its own ears, why angry mobs should attack Jews who mind their own business, how a whole nation manages to work itself into a revolutionary frame of mind over a matter that merely calls for a little quiet, courageous investigation, are things we do not understand. It really appears as though the Anglo-Saxon were the only man possessed of that balance of character and equipoise of powers essential to self-government.

If the progressive gentleman who introduced the limless variety of cotton will also trot in a rootless variety the effect on the price of the staple will be very gratifying to those planters who are old-fashioned in their tastes.

We are pleased to welcome again the North Wilkesboro Hustler, which comes out of the fire improved by the experience. It has been enlarged from a four to an eight page paper and is neat, newsy and fresh in appearance and in matter. Better luck next time.

The persistency with which plumes of federal patronage decline to take the direction indicated by the index finger of his fine Italian hand must be very perplexing to that young but versatile statesman, the Honorable Thomas Settle.

Judge S. O'Brien Robinson's declaration that the press is chiefly a superfluous luxury has called attention to and emphasized the fact that the sword of justice would not necessarily be prized out of the hilt if the judicial bench and the ermine were to know no more forever certain of the present occupants.

A LIGHTED PIPE IN HIS POCKET.

Why a Brooklyn Crowd Concluded That a Man Was Going Crazy.

A man of respectable and ordinary appearance succeeded in making himself a centre of interest to a Brooklyn crowd yesterday noon by actions that were extraordinary, if not actually lacking in respectability. He was walking quietly along Fulton street, near Bond, when he suddenly gave a sharp yell, jammed his hand into his pocket, pulled it out, jammed it into his mouth, pulled it out again and began to whisper on the sidewalk.

"Here's a man goin' crazy!" shouted the ever-present urchin, and a crowd materialized from all points of the compass. The man after pausing for a moment took off his coat and flung it violently to the ground. The crowd pressed back.

"He's going to lick the gang," opined another urchin. Instead of this the man began stamping violently on his coat. This produced a crunching sound. Next he picked it up, turned it upside down, and shook it violently. Some fragments of a pipe and a shower of burning tobacco fell out. The man returned his coat.

"That was an awful good pipe," he said, regretfully.

Then he went away and left the crowd looking rather foolish.—New York Sun.

Held to the Jug.
A negro boy from Sharon came to Charlotte Saturday and spent a large part of the substance for a jug of corn liquor. He imbibed a considerable portion of the jug's contents before he left here, and on the way home was unable to walk in the straight and narrow path of the railroad track. He fell on the track and rolled down an embankment. There was a wire fence at the bottom of the grade. The negro rolled through the fence and was painfully scratched up, but held on to the jug. There he lay, too drunk to rise, until Sunday afternoon, when a gentleman found him. When found he was frozen nearly to death. He was taken to a fire and thawed out. He is quite a young negro and works for Mr. John Hayne, who lives near the South Carolina line. When found he was still tightly gripped in his hand.—Charlotte News.

Something to Depend On.
Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with a gripe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Are You "Run Down?"

Until February, 1892, I was a physical wreck and had been for over twenty years. No one can ever know what I suffered from rheumatism and neuralgia in different parts of my body, but principally in my head. I suffered so much with pains in my back that often I would have to lay with bottles of hot water to my back to give me what little relief it would. I suffered with indigestion for years, which gave me often such choking spells that the doctor would have to be summoned in haste. I could not eat a mouthful of meat or solid food of any kind, and the evacuation of gas from my stomach was distressing. My system was completely run down. I had no strength and was distressingly nervous. Sometimes I would be unconscious from these nervous spells and would have to have hot baths applied for relief. When I had been in this condition for over twenty years, Mrs. Joe Person visited our town in February, 1892, and persuaded me to try a half-dozen bottles of her Remedy, as she told me she had never known it to fail to restore a broken down system. I knew I would have to try something and thought it might as well be her Remedy as anything, but I had no faith in anything curing me. I bought a half-dozen bottles and when I was on the second I began to feel better and by the time I took the six bottles I WAS WELL. Indigestion was perfectly cured and I could now eat anything I want and it agrees with me. I cured me entirely of neuralgia and I have never had it since. It cured me of hemorrhoids from which I suffered agony—rheumatism, backache, headache, nervousness all cured. When I see any one suffering from anything I ask them why don't they take the Remedy that half a dozen bottles would cure them. I would not take hundreds of dollars for what it did for me. It restored me to health and now I enjoy life.

WANG'S MERRY STORY.

Plot of the Successful Comic Opera
By Morse and Goodwin.

The plot of "Wang," that most popular of all the comic operas of recent years, is made all the more pat at this time by the recent political troubles between France and Siam—the scenes of this opera being laid in the latter country. The story of the opera—and it is very largely historical despite its burlesque character—deals with the troubles of Wang, regent of Mataya, the crown prince. The latter is imbued with modern European notions, and is not at all doleful under his uncle's guardianship. The regent has reigned for several years in a poverty-stricken sort of way, owing to the fact that the late king before his death concealed all the royal treasures and their hiding place has never been discovered. Chief among his troubles is a debt for a sacred white elephant which he has bought from the king of Cambodia, and for the purchase of which envoys from that country are constantly dunning him. A letter-tutted for the crown prince is intercepted, and through it the regent learns that the treasure chest is in the possession of the widow of the late French consul, who was instructed by the late king to deliver it to the prince when he reached his majority.

The story of the opera deals with the efforts of the regent to gain possession of the chest. Foiled in every other design, he is finally forced to marry the ancient widow and assume the care of her innumerable but pretty daughters, with one of whom, Marie, the crown prince is in love. After this sacrifice and after many complications, the chest is at last delivered to the regent who is horrified to find it empty.

As the crown prince is about to assume the throne, he finds the treasure in the coronation robes; satisfied with his riches, he marries the pretty daughter of the widow and resigns the throne to Wang. The opera with all the catchy music that has been the rage for two seasons, and with its wealth of pretty girls, oriental scenery and accurately gorgeous Siamese costumes, will be heard in the Academy of Music here Saturday, Jan. 29th, 1898.

CONSUMPTIVE IN THREE MONTHS

Prince Impey of the Kaffirs Taken to Southern Pines.

The Raleigh Post says:—Prince Impey, the South African of royal blood—a nephew of King William of the Kaffir tribe—who came here from Africa three months ago to take a course in Shaw University, has contracted consumption.

Yesterday the Prince was taken to Southern Pines by Dr. L. A. Scruggs for treatment in the hospital for consumptives of the colored race. Prince Impey will spend the winter at Southern Pines on advice of his physicians, and if he has not regained his health by spring he will return to his Kaffir home where some day he may preside over the destinies of that famed war like tribe.

As the African Princesat in the waiting room of the Union Station yesterday a look of despair was manifest on his face. The weakness of his lungs was visible to the eye, as breath went and came with exertion. With sick man was Prof. V. N. F. Roberts, of Shaw who has taken a great interest in his royal pupil. Prof. Robert says Prince Impey is one of the best students of English at Shaw. He is quick and has already acquired a good speaking English vocabulary.

The Prince made a mistake in coming to America at the opening of the winter season. He left a tropical home and the change has told on him.

The name of the Prince is Alfred Impey. His grandfather, King Kama, was King of the Kaffirs, and his uncle William is the present King. In the event of the death of his cousin, who is the son of an elder brother of King William, Prince Impey would succeed as King.

Yellow Fever Breaks Out Again.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Surgeon General Wyman has received a telegram dated the 20th instant from Dr. Stewart, at Memphis, stating that the secretary of the Mississippi State board of health reports one and possibly three cases of yellow fever near Edwards, Miss. Surgeon Carter, of the Marine Hospital, was ordered to Edwards to investigate, and reported on Saturday that he was on his way.

Ratliff Indicted for Perjury.

New York, Jan. 24.—Edward J. Ratliff, the actor, was held in $2,000 bail today, on the charge of perjury. The alleged perjury consists in his swearing during his recent trial for assaulting his wife, the daughter of Peter de Lacey, that he had never been married before.

"I believe," said Uncle Eben, "dat de human race would be considerable wiser an' happier if you could git 'em to foller an' arguement as easy as you kin git 'em to foller a circus pukeston."

HER HAIR TURNED WHITE.

Mrs. Snyder Frightened Nearly to Death by Two Masked Men.

Perry, Oklahoma, Jan. 23.—Mrs. James Snyder is a widow about 30 years of age. Her hair two weeks ago was auburn in color, but it is now as white as snow. Mrs. Snyder lives between Earlboro and Maude. Her husband died about six months ago, leaving her alone. She passed through all the horrible scenes of the mob burning the Indians which occurred two weeks ago. She said she would live there until she could sell her land, but the Seminole scare was too much for her.

On the night of the reported uprising a liveryman drove past her house and called to her to flee for her life. She began to pack up all she could carry, but before she got away two masked men entered. Their revolvers were aimed at her and she thought of the woman who had been killed by the two Seminoles and fell to the floor senseless. She recovered consciousness after a while and sat down on the edge of the bed to await daylight, when she found that her hair had turned white.

AN IMPERIAL CHINESE BANNER.

Ex-Chief Crowley Honored for His Fair Treatment.

San Francisco, Jan. 24.—The Chinese government has presented ex-Chief of Police Crowley with an imperial banner as a token of its esteem for the fair treatment which he gave the Chinese in California during nearly a quarter of a century of official life. Gen. Grant was the only other foreigner upon whom this special distinction has ever been conferred. The presentation was made last evening by a delegation from the consulate and leading Chinese merchants.

The banner is fifteen feet long and over five feet wide. Wrought on a fine strip of scarlet satin are Chinese characters explaining the nature of the gift. Fine embroidery of silver and gold ornaments are on the lower band, and throughout the embroidery are small mirrors framed in silver. Around the inscription are exquisite figures of birds and flowers in delicate shades of gold and silver. On one end of the banner is wrought the Emperor's name in royal green; and across the top are four Chinese characters a foot high, stitched with the finest spun gold. On the reverse side, which is of white silk, is painted a scene of a Chinese military victory. If the ex-Chief or any of his family ever visits China this banner will admit them to the imperial grounds.

FRESH MEAT AT DAWSON.

Herd of Cariboo Crosses the Yukon and Miners Get Fifty Head.

Ottawa, Jan. 23.—Advices received at the Mounted Police Department here indicate that not only have the stories of shortage of food at Dawson City been greatly exaggerated, but the supply is considerably better than for several seasons past. One letter mentions that about forty days ago a herd of cariboo crossed the Yukon River within a few miles of Dawson City. The population turned out in pursuit, and at the time the letter left some fifty head had been secured. The chances are that by following up the herd a further supply of fresh meat has been obtained.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the relief remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

"I am very much afraid," said the off-hand commentator, "that the gentleman who was in here does not make the most of his abilities. Unquestionably he has talent, but he lacks application."

Want the Bostons.

The manager of the Boston baseball team has been in correspondence with some parties here with a view to coming here to spend a month or so for early spring practice. The unsurpassed climate of Greensboro and its facilities for getting other teams here for practice games makes it especially a desirable location.

The matter is now pending and it would be a good move to secure the champions if possible. They have the reputation of being the most gentlemanly ball players in the league.

Vaccinate.

The appearance of small pox in Charlotte suggests that it would be well for those of our people who have not been vaccinated to take that precaution. Everyone should be vaccinated anyway. The dangers attending it are comparatively slight and need not deter any one. There is no one thing more firmly established than vaccination as one of the greatest discoveries of the science of medicine.

The Sherwood Concert.

So far as it is possible to judge from the opinions of those best qualified to express an opinion, the Sherwood concert should be a great musical treat. Mr. Sherwood is given first place in the current numbers of several of the best musical periodicals of the country. Opinions of these periodicals will be published later. Look out for them. The Sherwood concert, by all the tokens, should be one of the treats of the season.

R. C. Stanard returned to the city last night from Lynchburg.

* Cabill Harston, of Walnut Cove, arrived in the city on the noon train.

The Greensboro Ice & Coal Co., have a change of address in the Telegram today.

There will be a meeting of the South-side hose company tomorrow night at 7 o'clock.

There is a new advertisement in the space of the York Furniture Company in this paper today.

Messrs. Workman Bros. present a new advertisement for the benefit of Telegram readers today.

The climate of North Carolina beats the world. "Cherry" is fast maturing and will be ripe by Thursday night of this week.

We are pleased to state that stepping stones have been placed across South Davis at its junction with Fayetteville street.

Last night's rehearsal of the drama "Cherry" was the best yet and Thursday night promises an entertainment of a high order of merit.

Brick are being hauled to Mr. Ireland's lots on Edgeworth street for the foundation of two new and handsome dwellings to be erected there at once.

The train due here at 8:50 from the South was one hour late this morning, and the train due at 12:16 this afternoon was one hour and a half late.

The information comes straight that there will be some new dwellings erected on North Greene street in the near future, which will add a great deal to the appearance of that street.

Rev. T. H. Bain, of Raleigh, was in the city today. He came up on the early morning train to meet his daughter, Miss Posy Bain, who came down on the noon train from Rural Hall.

While sitting in your homes and in your offices rainy weather like this, it is a good time to reflect on the incalculable benefits a rock crusher would add to the public road improvement of this county.

Jos. G. Chandler, son of Senator Chandler, of New Hampshire, and an old newspaper man, is in the city representing the Lillian Tucker Company, which opens a five day engagement in this city next Monday, the 31st.

Everybody is wishing the Eagle Hose company much success and large returns from their engagement at the Academy of Music Thursday night in the drama "Cherry" by home talent, composed partly of members of the company.

"The weather is bad, very bad, but had it occurred to you that this rain is badly needed? There has been an unusually small amount of rain this winter. In some places the branches have not been started good since last fall's dry weather.

The work that is being done on the public roads by the convict force is a long step in the right direction. It is time to realize, however, that the results will not be permanent and lasting unless the new roads are finished with a liberal coating of crushed rock.

There was an informal meeting of the Merchants' & Manufacturers' Association at the club rooms last night. The result of the meeting is encouraging to the members. There has been added growth and development in the association's field of usefulness, and it is recognized as an important factor in the upbuilding of the city.

Thos. N. Plants line of ladies' fine shoes is one of the best made, celebrated for their exquisite finish, perfect fit and excellent wearing qualities. Thacker & Brockmann now carry this line and have just opened a large shipment of them in a great variety of styles, laced, button, black, tan, fancy vesting tops &c. You will find them advertised in today's Telegram.

Mr. Ceasar Cone is building an ice factory on his premises at Proximity, which he expects to fill with ice from the pond before the winter is gone. He is also planting a hedge around the grove which surrounds his elegant home, near the terminus of Summit avenue.

FOUR BY EIGHT.

The Size of the "Pain" in the Bank of Guilford Window.

There are practical jokes and there are jokes which are not practical. This is a practical joke, and it was perpetrated one of the editors of our esteemed contemporary, The Record.

Mr. Reece, who is something of a joker himself, was passing the Bank of Guilford yesterday, when the cashier, Mr. Bogart, who also ranks high as a "jokist," called to Mr. Reece to know if, by putting his hands on a large plate glass window in the front, he could feel an electric shock, asking him when he put up his hands, as indicated, if he could feel the "pain," calling his attention to the close proximity of a telephone wire at the top of the window.

He was not sure at first of the shock, and was asked to feel for the "pain" in the other window. He couldn't feel it and went back to the first window and decided that there was a slight "pain." Another passer-by was called and he, too, detected it.

The fact is, gentlemen, there is a "pane" in each window, good large ones, four by eight feet.

The laugh is on Mr. Reece, and it now remains for him to get even with the perpetrator.

Rumors of War.

If there was not war last night there were certainly rumors of war enough to make up for the lack. The Texas papers Saturday published a report that Consul-General Lee had been assassinated. The New York papers had it on Sunday but rather discredited it. A sapient commercial tourist, on the southbound train scattered the rumor along the road, spreading it in Danville, Reidsville and here. Many people accepted it as a fact. The Telegram's dispatches gave the fact that the Maine had been ordered to Cuba and many took that as evidence that the rumored assassination was true. For a few minutes the Western Union telegraph office was filled with anxious enquirers. A moment's thought would have shown that the dispatch giving the order to the Maine would certainly have given the assassination had it been true. News at this day and time does not wait for trains and commercial tourists.

Echoes of the Play.

The Cora Van Tassel Company had a gay old time yesterday afternoon celebrating their good luck here with full houses and some of the company got full too. Cora and Mrs. Raymond had a high old time about a note Cora's husband sent to Mrs. Raymond. Their meeting was a warm one and Cora played the part of "Forsaken Leah" even better than she did at the armory, while Mrs. Raymond was saying New York in great shape—the result of too much beer. They became reconciled and left town with everything all lovely.—Winston Journal.

When Miss Cora played in Greensboro the "high old time" took place before the performance the first night, consequently there were no full houses here.

Mr. Elkins' Financial Bill.

Senator Elkins today introduced a financial bill. It restricts the denomination of greenbacks and treasury notes to bills of five dollars and upward; provides that national banks may issue currency up to the par value of bonds deposited; reduces tax on circulation one-half of one per cent. and allows national banks to be established with $25,000 capital and in towns of 3,000 population.—Washington Star.

Smallpox in Charlotte.

The Charlotte papers report two cases of smallpox in Charlotte. The cases have been thoroughly isolated and every effort will be made to prevent the spread of the pest.

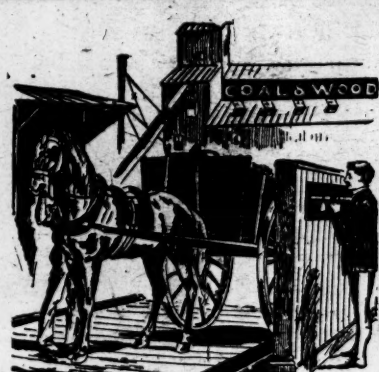

Both cases are colored people. Bidle University, colored, has ordered town students not to report at that institution. No excitement prevails in regard to the matter.

calls your attention to a handsome line of dress skirts which they have reduced from $5 and $6 to $3.50, made of all wool storm serge and full rustle lining. Also handsome novelty goods.

Our line of coats is somewhat broken in sizes and all we have on hand we propose to close out regardless of cost. As coats change so much in style, if we wait to see what next season brings forth we may get left, so have decided to make great sacrifices.

Come and take a good look at our Underwear. Have a nice line of Corset Covers from 12 1-2c for a good cambric waist, and a nice Hamburg trimmed front and back for 25c. Our gowns that were $1 we have marked 75c; good cambric with Hamburg trimming in Hubbard and Empire style. The skirts are in plain and umbrella ruffles, handsomely trimmed and ranging in price from 75c to $1. A nice line of Drawers from 25c to $1.25.
